TOLSTOI'S CHANGE LESS FAVORABLE

Change For Worse in Count's Condition But Hopes Are Not Abandoned.

PATIENT NOW UNCONSCIOUS

Great Anxiety Over His Condition.—Physician States Case is Not Hopeless.—Count Rebuked His Physician.

Astapova, Russia, Nov. 18.—After having remained practically unchanged throughout the day, the condition of Court Leo Tolstoi took an unfavorable turn late this afternoon. Oxygen was administered to the patient, who frequently lost consciousness.

Great anxiety was expressed by those at the bedside of the stricken novelist, but hopes have not been abandoned for his ultimate recovery.

Dr. Usoff, professor of internal diseases at Moscow University, and Dr. Tschaurovasky, who treated Tolstoi for bronchitis in the Crimea and in 1901 have been urgently summoned to Astapova.

At 7 o'clock this evening Tolstoi's temperature was 97.88, pulse 110 and respiration 36. At that hour he was quite conscious, but sleepy and very weak. Still later in the evening the general feeling of the patient was better.

Dr. Berkenheim says the case is not hopeless, though no means will be available to relieve the overtaxed heart throughout periods of unconsciousness.

No detail of the bed chamber escapes Tolstoi. Today he rebuked Dr. Berkenheim for entering and not greeting him. Again, overhearing a hushed consultation over his couch Tolstoi said:

"It is not painful." This morning he demanded that some one read to him disconnected sentences he had dictated while in a semi-delirious state last night.

The Holy Snod is trying by all avenues to approach the bedside of Count Tolstoi. Today it ordered an aged monk named Joseph, a friend with whom Tolstoi conversed at the Optina Monastery last week, to come to Astapova. Joseph's health, however, did not permit of his making the journey and therefore the Abbot of Optina, accompanied by a monk, came instead. They were not permitted to enter the sick room, however.

This morning Tolstoi's eldest daughter, Tatina was permitted to see her father for a few moments.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—Emperor Nicholas today had an audience with Procurator of the Holy Synod Lukianoff to whom he expressed the wish that Count Tolstoi be buried according to the Orthodox Rite, even if a reconciliation between the venerable man and the church were not effected.

Astapova, Russia, Nov. 10—At 12:40 o'clock this morning Count Leo Tolstoi was resting quietly.

PARLIAMENT IN SESSION.

May be Turning Point in the History of House of Lords.

London, Nov. 18.—Today's brief sessions of the two houses of Parliament are likely to prove to be the turning point in the history of the House of Lords as at present constituted. The older conservatives view the march of events with anxious concern and are loudly lamenting the disappearance of the hereditary principle as the basis of the upper chamber, but whatever may result a second appeal to the Nation arising from the struggle between the two houses seems certain and that henceforth elective and selective bases will enter into the constitution of the House of Lords.

Interest in the situation has now been transferred to the constituencies. The belief tonight is that the House of Lords will not attempt to pass the second reading of the veto bill on the conditions imposed by Premier Asquith. Mr. Asquith will open the liberal campaign with a speech at the National Liberal Club tomorrow and in it he is expected to develop the government's policy. All the other leaders are booked for speechs in quick succession.

Much criticism and complaint is heard on the conservative side that the government has precipitated elections at an inconvenient time. Both sides, however, profess the utmost confidence in the outcome of an appeal to the country.

WAS BOILED TO DEATH.

Two-Year-Old Georgian Met His Doom in Kettle of Syrup.

Thomasville, Ga., Nov. 18.—Boiled to death in syrup was the manner of death suffered by the two-year-old son of Georgia Swift, a white man at Metcalfe, this county, late yesterday. The child, walking backwards, fell into the kettle of syrup which was being carried by two men and was submerged.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 18.—Juan Burcell, who, it is claimed, was 122 years old, died here today. Burcell was born in Sonora, Mexico, and had lived in this country many years.

BIG BRIBE OFFER FROM STRANGE MAN

New York Legislator Declares He Could Have Sold Vote For $100,000.

TO KILL ANTI-RACING BILLS

Former Senator Gardner Implicated in Bribery Scheme.—Graft Committee Now After Two Millionaires.

New York, Nov. 18.—One hundred thousand dollars to vote against the anti-race track betting bills in 1908 was offered to State Senator Eugene M. Travis, of Brooklyn, so he swore on the stand today, testifying before the Legislative Graft Committee. A mysterious little man, whose name he does not recall, made the offer in the lobby of the Senate, he said, in behalf of former Senator Frank J. Gardner, and Gardner, he added, confirmed it in a subsequent telephone conversation.

Gardner is now under indictment charged with having attempted similarly, though with a lesser amount, to influence Otto C. Foelker, of Brooklyn, now a congressman, but when a State Senator, Mr. Foelker, voted for the bill as did Travis and it was passed notwithstanding the frantic efforts of the race track interest and the alleged use of a fund which previous testimony has placed at $500,000.

Travis' testimony and the committee's efforts to subpoena John R. Keen and Harry Payne Whitney, two millionaires, whose nobby is horse racing, were the most interesting developments of today's hearing, resumed after an adjournment on October 22nd. Efforts to find Messrs. Keene and Whitney, who have been mentioned in previous testimony as having been present at a conference at Delmonico's at which the alleged corruption fund was raised, and the committee is anxious to examine them, but thus far have been without success.

Travis' story of today added two new names to the list of Senators "approached." The amount offered him, he explained, was to be paid in two installments at $25,000 down and $75,000 after his vote had been cast.

"Did you ever hear of any other senator being approached?" he was asked.

"Yes, I took lunch with Senator Fuller and Senator Carpenter one day, and they told me that they had been approached. Senator Gates also told me he had been called on the telephone."

"Would you know the man who approached you if you saw him again?"

"Yes, I think so."

CRIPPEN DIES AT LOS ANGELES.

Father of Murderer-Dentist Suffers Death of An Outcast.

Los Angeles, Cal. Nov. 18.—Myron H. Crippen, aged 83 years, father of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, under sentence of death in London for the murder of his wife, died here today friendless and penniless. His death due to the infirmities of age, was hastened by grief over his son's crime.

Death occurred in a rooming house and the only person at the old man's bedside was the woman who managed the place.

Dr. Crippen was the sole support of his aged father and since the son's flight from London with Ethel Leneve and his arrest in Canada some months ago, no remittances had come.

Facing actual starvation he was helped by a few persons whom he had come to know during his residence in Los Angeles.

Port of Spain, Trinidad, Nov. 16.—The United States torpedo boat Potomia, conveyed by the auxiliary cruiser Dixie arrived here this afternoon from San Juan, Porto Rico.

READY FOR YALE-HARVARD GAME

Greatest Football Contest of Season at New Haven Today—Both Teams Confident of Victory. Thousands to Attend.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 18.—The football team that wins here tomorrow—Yale or Harvard—will take place not only as undisputed champions of the East, but among the great teams in the history of the sport.

If Yale wins she will have shown a resiliency, courage against odds, and ability not only to will but to do, that, although these things have always been part of the very name Yale, will mark her 1910 eleven as the pluckiest fighting team she ever put out.

If Harvard wins she will only establish more firmly the reputation she has been making for herself all season.

Yale always plays her best game against Harvard.

Harvard is the favorite as she logically ought to be. Haughton says tonight, as he did to the undergraduates a week or more ago: "I don't fear them in the least, but I have a tremendous respect for them."

Tom Shevlin and Walter Camp say simply, "Yale will win."

Ted Coy, Brink Thorne and Foster Sanford, all Yale veterans and skilled coaches, can't see how Yale can lose.

The crowd tomorrow will be all the field can hold. From applications in hand, it seems probable that 100,000 would flock to the field tomorrow if there were seats enough to hold them. But that is precisely what the athletic committees in charge do not want. They fear to commercialize the game.

There hinges on the result of tomorrow's game more than victory itself. Harvard, led by Haughton, has become the exponent of advanced football and it under obligations to show what can be made of it. If Harvard should win Haughton and the other progressive coaches would gain added power in the councils to be held this Winter on the rules. The winner's voice is always loudest. If Yale wins her opposition to the forward pass—which she has accepted and with which she won at Princeton last Saturday, but of which she does not approve—will be correspondingly more powerful.

The last practice of the Harvard team was held this afternoon on the links of the Country Club at Farmington. The 'Varsity and first substitutes lined up and while there was no actual scrimmage, the formations to be used Saturday were carried through to completion.

Big New York Crowd.

New York, Nov. 18.—The biggest football crowd that ever stormed the Grand Central station will pack itself into 23 special trains tomorrow to see the Yale-Harvard game. The Harvard Club has chartered two whole trains, the Yale Club several special cars and a long list of well known graduates of both colleges and their friends have engaged other cars. Among them are J. P. Morgan, George W. Perkins, Harry Payne Whitney, Elbert H. Gary, W. E. Corey and Ballard McCall.

It is estimated that the 23 trains will carry more than 20,000 passengers.

TEDDY AT WASHINGTON AGAIN

Discusses African Adventures and Not Politics Before National Geographic Society—5,000 Heard Him Speak.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt returned to the National capital today for the first time since his official departure from the White House in March 1910. In the role of the sportsman and scientist he came to relate before the National Georgraphic Society tonight adventures in the African jungle. Fully 5,000 persons, including cabinet officers, Supreme court justices and members of the diplomatic corps, crowded convention hall and gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

Much interest was manifested as to whether he would make any reference to the recent political upheavel or politics in general, but beyond the remark that "every dog has his day, but the nights belong to the cats," which he made in jest before the National Press Club, where he was informally received this afternoon shortly after his arrival, the Colonel evaded the mention of politics.

From the moment of his arrival at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon the Colonel kept up a rapid fire of speculatives that evinced the hearty enjoyment he felt at returning to scenes that recalled strenuous days of executive action.

At the National Press Club there was a great gathering of newspaper men and their friends.

Addressing the newspaper men he said:

"My friends I am very deeply touched by your kind way of greeting me and I do hope you understand how genuinely I feel it. I do not want to make any comments," Mr. Roosevelt joined in the laugh that followed, and added "I was thinking of one, however, that would be sufficiently inclusive. I wish to say that every dog has his day, but the nights belong to the cats."

When the laughter subsided, the colonel paid a compliment to the character of the newspaper men of the capital.

"There were individuals among you," he said, "for whom I think I was able successfully to dissemble my love. In that respect they rank with some senators, representatives plutocrats, labor leaders and others."

The colonel with a bit of humor that occasioned laughter when he said: "And now I am going to have a chance to shake hands with every blessed one who does not think his

INDICTMENT NOW RETURNED

Wife Charged With Administering Arsenic to Her Millionaire Husband.—Utmost Secrecy Maintained by the Court.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 18.—Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk, charged with administering arsenic to her millionaire husband, John O. Schenk, was indicted by the grand jury of Ohio county today. While no definite information is given out through the prosecuting attorney's office, it is learned that only nurses whose names were not disclosed, who have been employed by the Schenk family, and Dr. Frank E. Rupp, upon whose finding, Mrs. Schenk was first arrested, were present to testify before the grand jury.

For the first time in the history of the county, the corridors of the county building was cleared while the grand jury was in session. Newspaper men were not exempt and threats of jail for contempt of court were made if they ventured within the portals of the building.

Before the grand jury was sent out to consider the case, attorneys for Mrs. Schenk urged that a continuance be granted because no preliminary hearing had been held. The court overruled the motion.

During the hearing Mr. Schenk, who is at the North Wheeling hospital recovering from the effects of arsenic poisoning, was most anxious to learn the result of the jury's finding. He made frequent inquiries, and had a friend in frequent communication with the prosecuting attorney's office. He made no comment when he learned of the indictment. The date for the trial has not been set.

The Schenks have two interesting little children, Virginia and Robert, who may be called as witnesses in the case. The most important witness at the trial will likely be Lundy Wilson, chauffeur for the Schenks, who, it will be recalled, told the prosecutor that he was ordered $1,000 to run Mr. Schenk over a cliff and kill him.

CUSTOM FRAUDS CHARGED.

Two Members of Woolen Firm Arrested in New York Yesterday.

New York, Nov. 18.—Isaac and Manning Phillips, members of the firm of I. & M. Phillips, importers in business at No. 18 West 18th street, were arrested late this afternoon charged with having defrauded the government out of duty on woolen wearing apparel imported from France by means of false consular invoices. As the government is in possession of evidence concerning a number of alleged fraudulent importations by the firm, bail was fixed at $10,000 for each of the prisoners. A surety company furnished bonds.

Assistant United States District Attorney C. C. Whitney, who has charge of the prosecution, says the Phillips firm have been acting as importers since 1907 and that the total of the duties out of which the government has been defrauded will reach $50,000.

The case follows quickly on the proceedings against Joseph Brooke & Company, English woolen goods importers, because of alleged under-valuations.

MEXICO TROUBLES REACH A CRISIS

One Hundred Persons, Including Chief of Police, Killed in Rioting.

PUEBLA SCENE OF BLOODSHED

Clash Between Anti-Re-Electionists and Federal Forces—Other Developments in Diaz Government Situation.

Mexico City, Nov. 18.—One hundred persons, including the chief of police, were killed in riots at Puebla today according to statements of passengers arriving tonight from that city. The stories told by passengers are to the effect that the trouble began this morning when a number of policemen, headed by the chief, attempted to break up a meeting of anti-re-electionists which was held in a large hall.

As Chief of Police Miguel Cabrera and his men advanced towards the building a door was opened by a woman, who shot and killed the chief.

A fight then ensued between the police and the occupants. A bomb was thrown from one of the windows in the midst of the policemen and rurals, the latters having been called to assist the officers. The bomb exploded, killing many.

The other casualties occurred in the course of fighting which took place in the street. So far as known there were no Americans killed.

The passengers further asserted that from midnight until their train left Puebla in the afternoon there was continuous riotings; and, while anti-re-electionists had been dislodged from the building, fears were entertained that the disorders were by no means at an end.

From other sources in Mexico City, tonight, it was learned that the 17th Battalion left here late today for Puebla by special train and that other trains were in readiness to transport additional troops to the scene of the riots if deemed necessary.

It was officially stated in Mexico City tonight that 18 men were killed in Puebla today.

Mexico City, Nov. 18.—Details of the anti-Diaz conspiracy alleged to have been promoted by Francisco I. Madero, now a fugitive from Mexico, and which has resulted within the past two days in the arrest of several co-conspirators in this city and elsewhere came to light today indicating that Sunday, November 20th, was the date fixed for a general uprising against the executive government.

The conspirators appeared to have extended their operations to the State of Vera Cruz, Hidalog, Cainuno, San Luis Poto, Neuvo Leon, Peubla, Jurisco, Guanajuato, Zacatan and Zacatecas. To the authorities in all these states orders have been sent to put down with vigor any attempt at disturbance.

Circulars which appear to have been sent out by Madero or his agents from San Antonio, Texas, to various persons here, outline his campaign and announce Madero as constitutional president of Mexico.

Among other statements contained in the manifesto were the following:

"I, Francisco I. Madero, will place myself at the head of a revolutionary party against the government of Mexico. Between the 20th and 30th of November I shall lead my followers against the government of Mexico."

Guard Against Uprising.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 19.—The presence of fifteen Mexican secret service men in this city shows that the Diaz government is thoroughly alive to the danger of a border uprising, rumors of which have been rife for many days. Especially are the secret service men on the lookout for suspected revolutionary leaders, who may cross the Rio Grande into the United States and for shipments of arms en route to Mexico.

Still Guarding Marathon.

El Paso, Texas, November 18.—Marathon, which feared an attack by a band of Mexicans last night, following the burning of a countryman a few days ago, at Rock Springs, is still under guard tonight. However, scouts who have been scouring the country for 24 hours have failed to get a trace of the invaders.

It is now believed that the band was composed of Mexican cattle thieves whose object was plunder and not revenge.

BURIAL OF "GYPSY QUEEN."

Baltimore Society Girl Who Ran Away With Michele.

Baltimore, Nov. 18.—The burial of the body of Jessie Habersham Michele, the Baltimore society girl who married a Gypsy King, took place today at Loudon Park cemetery. Mrs. Michele died in a Cincinnati hospital recently. She was a descendant of Frances Scott Key, the author of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The young woman disappeared from her home about five years ago, joining the tribe of Gypsies over which she afterwards ruled as queen when she married "King John" Michele.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 18.—The schooner Charles Whitmore, reported on Thursday as having lost her rudder near Currituck Inlet on the North Carolina coast, was towed into Hampton Roads tonight by the revenue cutter Onondaga.

A SUFFRAGE BAND OPENS HOSTILITIES

Women 1,000 Strong Marched on Parliament and Fought the Police.

AMERICAN JACKIES CHEERED

Miss Annie Martin, Wealthy Nevada Woman, Arrested—Suffragettes Were Led by Mrs. Panhurst—The Struggle.

London, Nov. 18.—The militant suffragettes re-opened hostilities against the government today, and marching 1,000 strong on the Parliament buildings, gave the police a lively fight. The women, many of whom were placed under arrest, were led by Mrs. Emmeline Panhurst.

The suffragettes had determined if possible, to force the police cordon about the House of Commons and, reaching Premier Asquith, to insist upon the introduction of a woman's suffrage bill. The police, however, were too strongly entrenched and the women who tried to force the line were thrown back.

A contingent of the American blue jackets from the visiting fleet were enthusiastic spectators of the struggle and lustily cheering the combatants, inciting them to fresh efforts.

During the battle a constable was badly gashed across the hand, apparently by a knife blade. This was the only blood letting. Among the suffragettes arrested was Annie Martin, of Nevada.

After a prolonged struggle the police cleared Parliament Square and three of the leaders of the demonstration headed by Mrs. Panhurst, were allowed to enter the lobby of the chamber, where they were informed by Mr. Asquith's secretary that the Premier refused to see them, and that there was no chance for a suffrage bill to be presented at the present session.

Before the House of Commons had adjourned for the day 116 suffragettes and supporters had been jailed. After the women had exhausted themselves the arrests occurred with monotonous regularity.

The women presented a sorry spectacle when the battle was over. The dresses of many were torn and their hair hung down. Hats, handbags and bits of feminine apparel and torn banners littered the ground. Mr. Asquith had a narrow escape from the irate deputation, who were admitted to the lobby.

This evening all of the 116 suffragettes including Grace Johnson, of Buffalo, N. Y. were released on bail. They will be arraigned in the Bow street police court tomorrow morning.

Cultured Nevada Woman.

Reno, Nev. Nov. 18.—Miss Ann Martin, arrested in London today, is former resident of Reno, a daughter of one of the pioneer families of the State.

Left a large estate on the death of her father several years ago, she has spent most of her time since then in Europe. She was for a time an instructor in languages at the University of Nevada and is highly educated. She is also an artist.

RECKLESS USE OF FUNDS.

Charges Made at Annual Meeting of National Grange.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 18.—The move made by the insurgents for access to the books of the National Grange for the purpose of securing evidence of the alleged reckless use of funds of the organization, met defeat after a lengthy debate in which the hostile forces put forth their best speakers today.

Worthy Master Helm, of Michigan, presented the resolutions asking permission to go over the records of the Grange, under proper supervision.

Wives, who according to the laws of the Grange, are given equal franchise with their husbands, in many cases voted in opposition to the men, when the stand patters and insurgents finally lined up for the vote. Raine, of Missouri, took the final slap at the organization, just before the question was put. When the vote was counted the insurgents had met with defeat in their first move to wrest the control of the powerful farmer body from the present administration. Regarding the plans of the administration which holds over as the National officers are elected every other year, to have the so-called agitators brought to trial and dropped from the organization, one of the officers said that unless the opposition sustained its allegations Monday when the National Grange would sit as trial and would not adjourn until a vote was taken, formal charges would be prosecuted in the lodges to which the originators of the allegations belonged. The two leaders who are most likely to be brought to trial are George P. Hampton, of New York City, and George Helme, editor of a farmers' journal in Michigan.

RACING IN S. C.

Big Meet, It is Said, Now Planned for Palmetto State.

New Orleans, Nov. 18.—The word has gone out among the race track element that with the advent of the administration of Governor Blease in South Carolina in January, preparations will be made for the opening of a big race meet in that State. It is said that a $100,000 race track is to be built at Charleston, to be ready for a Spring meeting in 1911. The Charleston track is to take the place of the Jacksonville and Tampa tracks, where racing will be barred by statute after January 1.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 18.—When shown the New Orleans dispatch regarding the attitude of horse racing interests there toward the advent of his administration, Governor-elect Blease said:

"I have never heard a word about it—do not know what it means. Nobody has ever discussed the matter with me. Although I love a good race I have not seen or talked with a race horse man since I was 21."

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 18.—The announcement of the scheme to build a $100,000 race track here was made during the past Summer the promoters frankly stating that they desired the endorsement of the business men. While the plans have been steadily devolping they have not reached a point where any definite statement can be made, the promoters preferring to keep their own counsel until their programme is ripe for launching. Prominent people have been interested, but at this time it cannot be said that the track will be built. So far as known, the election of Mr. Blease to the governorship has hod nothing to do with the programme. It was stated today that it was not known just when the promoters, who decline to make a statement, will be ready to discuss their plans.

LORD BALTIMORE IS OUT.

Famous Brown Gelding Receives a Number of Setbacks.

New York, Nov. 18.—Lord Baltimore, the brown gelding that has won so many blues, both here and abroad for C. W. Watson, of Baltimore, and the Fairmont Farms, West Virginia, was ordered off the tanbark again today by the judges on the ground that he was lame. The famous gelding has had a series of setbacks in this year's National horse show.

Mr. Watson was highly indignant tonight, but made no formal protest. William Grant, driving for Paul Sorg, was also puzzled. "I'll wager $10,000," he exclaimed, "that Lord Baltimore is not lame and I'll let the judges name the veterinary."

Charles Wilson, driving for Alfred G. Vanderbilt, was also positive that Lord Baltimore had nothing the matter with him.

There were two bad spills this afternoon and one this morning, but nobody was seriously injured.

It was announced today that Louis Winans, of Brighton, England, has sold the famous Kentucky futurity Silice by Moko-Silcon to John E. Madden, from whom Mr. Winans bought him. Mr. Madden would not name the price he paid, but said it was a few thousand more than I got for him."

That price was $34,000. Under the Winans colors Solice established a mark of 2:08 1-4, over a five furlong track in Austria and it was that performance that decided Madden to buy him back.

ONLY ONE LONE AVIATOR.

Flew Yesterday at Colorado Meet—Aftermath of Johnstone's Death.

Denver, Col. Nov. 18.—A lone aviator, soaring east-wise against the dazzling background of the snow clad Rocky Mountains, grimly reminded ten thousand spectators at Overland Park today of yesterday's reckless rivalry which culminated in the tragic death of Ralph Johnstone, holder of the world's altitude record.

While Walter Brookin of the Wright team was speeding toward Kansas City, with the body of the man who, in Brookins' own words, "flew as he pleased," Arch Hoxsey, whose feats Johnstone ever sought to excel, gave the two flights called for by his contract and threw in another one to please the crowd.

What Hoxsey failed to do in fancy work today he made up in speed. Rising and circling to the height of about 2,000, taking nine minutes to do it, he then headed northwest toward the foothills. The great wings of the bi-plane dwindled in the distance until only the keen-eyed could see the machine. When Hoxsey reached the field again, it was learned that he had covered an estimated distance of 20 miles in 20 minutes. Hoxsey estimated his greatest altitude at 3,500 feet from the ground or 8,700 feet above the sea level. In his final flight, Hoxey rose and dipped, and turned until the crowd voiced the seemingly unanimous desire that he come down.

FIRED AT ACTING GOVERNOR.

Attempt to Assassinate Official at Guadeloupe, Yesterday.

Pointe-A-Pitre, Guadeloupe, Nov. 18.—An attempt on the life of Acting Governor William Fawtier was made yesterday. A carriage occupied by the governor was fired upon at the very spot and at the same hour of the day that an attack was made upon Governor Gautret's carriage in September.

Yesterday four bullets from a revolver passed through the upper part of the vehicle. The assailant escaped.

The shooting has caused much excitement. One hundred marines from the French cruiser Admiral Aube have been landed. They will try to preserve order at the elections Sunday.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 18.—The Executive Committee of the Virginia Press Association tonight accepted the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to hold its next annual meeting here July 11-14. Staunton and Natural Bridge also asked for the convention.

DRAINAGE ASSOCIATION.

Finance Committee Meeting With Fine Success—Entertainment.

The finance committee, which has in charge the raising of funds for the proper entertainment of the several hundred delegates expected here next week for the State Drainage Convention, was on its rounds yesterday and met with gratifying success at the hands of Wilmington merchants. A large number have not yet been seen but the committee will continue its efforts today and it is safe to say that by tonight sufficient funds will be in hand to guarantee that all visitors next week will receive the proverbial Cape Fear hospitality at the hands of the several committees on arrangements. The finance committee, as now constituted, is composed of Messrs. B. F. Keith, C. VanLeuven and J. A. McGeachy, and they have gone about their work with a will. Funds are being provided both for the smoker and for proper entertainment on the river trip on the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole. As the date approaches, it is seen that there will be a very large attendance and every man in the State interested in drainage and good roads is cordially invited.

BIG CARGO TO LIVERPOOL.

Steamer Bengrove Carried 14,105 Bales—Four Steamers Here.

With another cargo valued at over a million dollars, the British steamer Bengrove, Capt. Barber, cleared yesterday for Liverpool. The steamer carried 14,105 bales, which is about an average cargo and its valuation is $1,030,000. The vessel and cargo are by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

With the clearance of the Bengrove there are still four steamers to receive the staple in port and there will probably be another clearance today. Quotations of cotton declined to a basis of 13 7-8 cents for middling on the market Thursday, which is the lowest spot of the present season, but yesterday it went back to 14 cents.

Mr. Thos. E. Skipper Returns.

Many friends will be interested and pleased to learn that Mr. Thomas E. Skipper, formerly of Wilmington, but for 26 years a resident of New York City, has returned to Wilmington to reside. Mr. Skipper has not decided what business he will engage in. He is an experienced and thoroughly capable printer, having served his apprenticeship in The Morning Star office many years ago and for the past 26 years has been working at the trade in New York City. His son, Mr. Thos. W. Skipper, and his family removed to Wilmington about eight weeks ago to make their future home. Both will receive a hearty welcome as permanent residents of Wilmington. Mr. Thos. E. Skipper is a orother of Mr. Fred T. Skipper, clerk of the Recorder's court.

Mr. Mack Godwin Injured.

Mr. Mack Godwin fell, or was thrown from his buggy to the pavement, on Second, between Market and Princess streets, about 8:30 o'clock last night, and painfully, though not seriously, injured. He was taken into a nearby store and attended by Dr. Russell Bellamy, after which he was sent to his home. The horse continued down the street and was stopped at Market intersection by a policeman. Just a few minutes before this, Mr. Preston Farrow was struck by the buggy at intersection of Second and Princess streets. According to those who witnessed the accident Mr. Godwin was driving slowly and Mr. Farrow thoughtlessly stepped in front of the vehicle. He was not injured, it was said.

Yoke Fellows' Appointments.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

In Sudden Emergencies

like illness, it is often necessary quickly to raise the temperature of a room. For instance, in those hours between midnight and dawn, when the day temperature has been allowed to drop, if you are called upon to get up, the room is chilly and cold. It takes a long time to start up a furnace or fire and raise the temperature by ordinary means.

You can instantly heat a room to any desired temperature with a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be cleaned in an instant. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has a filler-cap which does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It is strong, durable and well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

BOAT WAS DISABLED.

Capt. Vitous, of Venus, Returns Here From Little River, S. C.

The gasoline boat Venus, Capt. Joseph F. Vitous, which spent last Saturday and Sunday at Wrightsville Beach, proceeding Monday on its journey to Jacksonville, Fla., ran on a shoal at Little River, S. C., Thursday morning and remained hard and fast until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when a fisherman came to the rescue of the disabled craft. Capt. Vitous was taken ashore and later made arrangements to have his boat towed in at Little River. The shaft and propeller were broken and the boat sprung a leak, making it impossible to continue the trip without repairs or the assistance of a tow boat. Capt. Vitous could not make the desired arrangements at Little River and came here last night on the "Isabel" and will today secure here the parts needed and will endeavor to make arrangements to provide a tow for his craft to Georgetown, S. C., where the repairs will be made. As stated in this paper last Sunday, Capt. Vitous is on his way from Cleveland, Ohio, to Jacksonville, Fla., to win a wager of $1,000, and while finances are at present very low, he says that he will amply repay those who assist him in time of need when he arrives at Jacksonville. He has completed 2,200 miles of the journey and has remaining only 300 miles and he feels certain that he can arrive at his destination and demonstrate that a small power craft can make such a trip, provided he receives some assistance in his present distress. The disablement of his craft, he says, is due to the fact that there was an unusually high tide, causing the loss of two buoys, and therefore he ran out of the channel.

Given Hearing Yesterday.

Before Justice John J. Fowler yesterday afternoon Mr. S. G. Long was given hearing on the charge of giving a check for $25 and not providing funds at the bank to cover the amount. A very interesting point is involved and after hearing the evidence Mr. Fowler took the case under advisement until this morning. It appears that Mr. Long gave the check to a representative of the D. R. Foster real estate agency in connection with a real estate transaction. The check was on the Savings bank and later, deciding that he did not care to purchase the property, did not carry his pass book to the bank so that the check would be honored there. Walter P. Gafford, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, while L. Clayton Grant, A. J. Marshall and Woodus Kellum, Esqs., appeared for the defendant. The case was originally set before Justice Harriss but was removed.

THE NEWS AT WHITEVILLE

Prohibition Being Rigidly Enforced—Condition of Crops—White Marsh Drainage District Being Considered.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 18.—"There is no doubt about Whiteville being a prohibition town in the fullest acceptation of that term," remarked a drummer ast night, whose business brings him here frequently.

There are no blind tigers here, and Chief of Police Thompson says it is the rarest thing to see a man the least under the influence of liquor, and he does not average two arrests a year for drunkenness. There is some illicit distilling going on in the marshes out in the country, but the rum they make is never seen in town.

The criminal term of court convenes Monday week, but there is very little criminal business to transact. There are seven prisoners in jail, all for petty cases. It has been months since the county had a shooting scrape or anything like a serious disturbance.

Farmers have about finished gathering their crops, and they report that cotton will average about two-thirds of a full crop; corn is something below the average, but potatoes, turnips and other Fall crops were never finer. The pea crop is almost a total failure, and some farmers say they will not get their seed back. The Farmers' Union members are nearly all holding their cotton, in anticipation of an advance in price. It is estimated that about half the cotton grown in this county has been sold. Farmers were never in a better fix to hold their cotton, as most of them have money ahead from their other crops.

The total eclipse of the moon Tuesday night, was a surprising event, as no notice of the eclipse had been given in the daily papers. Several negroes in the eastern section of the county thought it foretold the advent of Judgment Day, and sat up all night praying.

Mrs. Sims, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived in Whiteville this evening, on an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Memory. Mrs. Sims is the widow of Col. Sims, once postmaster of Atlanta, and in his day one of the leading and most distinguished men in Georgia.

Manager High has of late made great improvements in the Columbus Hotel ,and many traveling men take advantage of its splendid service to stop over in Whiteville at night or spend Sundays. They say it is now the best managed hotel between Wilmington and Columbia, S. C.

Mr. Charles Baldwin, one of Whiteville's oldest and best known citizens, and father of Miss Blannie Baldwin, one of the prize winners in the Star's contest, has been dangerously ill, but is some better today.

It is learned that all of the territory lying north of Whiteville, on the White Marsh and its tributaries, is ready to organize for an immense drainage district, and the parties are now only waiting for the land owners in the lower portion to come in. The bulk of the property between our town and the Waccamaw river is owned by the estates of the late Messrs. Short and Beares, and is now controlled by their heirs. If these parties can be induced to unite in the great movement, the work will at once start, and Columbus county will be transformed into the Egypt of the Old North State. This drainage district will extend from near the Brunswick line, entirely through Columbus and reaching far into Bladen county.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Transactions Below High Water Mark. Movement of Trade.

New oYrk, Nov. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co's. weekly review of Trade tomorrow will say:

The volume of transactions is still below high water mark, but a fair degree of activity exists throughout the country and this is reflected in the reports from the principal industries and the leading cities. This measure of activity is more in evidence than is the profit of business, narrowed as it is by the high costs of labor and material. The actual movement of trade is helped by the tendency to declining prices, which is manifest, but this is a movement which is susceptible of a two-fold interpretation.

Definite signs of improvement appear in iron and steel, although business from the railroads has not developed as quickly as usual at this season of the year. Further rail purchases, involving a substantial tonnage, have been made for 1911 delivery, however, and other announcements are expected.

Progress is noted in special lines of cotton goods offered for Spring. The demand for print cloths and convertibles has fallen off and prices are generally easier. Export trade is quiet. In men's wear there is an active demand for overcoatings for immediate delivery. Underwear and hosiery lines are in moderately better request, but new Fall prices show no advance in important departments. A slightly improving demand is noted in yarns. Advances are announced on silk ribons and silk piece goods for future delivery.

New business in footwear is limited and most New Engalnd plants are running on short time.

Taylor, Leaksville; Kelly N. Summey, Dallas.

Col. Joseph Button, of Virginia, and W. H. McMaster, of South Carolina, commissioners of insurance for their respective states, were in conference here last night and this morning with Commissioner James R. Young, with reference to examinations of a number of companies and fraternal associations made jointly by representatives of different State insurance departments.

A commission was issued today to Gordon Smith, of this city, as Assistant Adjutant General with the rank of Colonel, to succeed R. L. Leinster, commissioned by Governor Kitchin as Adjutant General to succeed the late General Armfield. The new assistant is connected with the Raleigh Bank & Trust Co. He will devote some time each day to work in the State Guard headquarters here as did General Leinster before his advancement to the adjutant generalship.

The Bank of Hobgood, Halifax county, was chartered today with $5,000 capital by E. P. Heyman, W. P. White and others for commercial business. The Spray Utilities and Terminal Company, of Spray, Rockingham county, is chartered with $500,000 capital authorized and only $300 subscribed, the corporation having the power to develop real estate, water-power, textile manufacturing, telephone, telegraph and a variety of other avenues of effort, S. H. Marshall, E. V. Hebbe and N. H. McCollum are the incorporators. Another charter today is to The Carolina Spruce Co., of Pennsacola, Yancey county, capital $30,000 by C. A. Oberlin and others.

The Lowell Cotton Mills, of Gaston county, increases capital through charter amendment filed with the Secretary of State today, the increase being to $450,000, the president of the corporation is Jno. C. Rankin.

The docket being prepared for the November term of the Federal court here will contain over 100 new cases in addition to the large number of cases coming over from former terms. District Attorney H. F. Seawell is here preparing the bills in the new cases for the grand jury.

Miss Sallie Lineberry, who was one of those painfully but not dangerously injured in the terrible automobile accident that marred the aviation meet here this week, is a daughter of Capt. W. S. Lineoerry, superintendent of the North Carolina Soldiers' Home. Capt. Lineberry says the injuries of his daughter are still very severe but he hopes not serious.

AFFAIRS AT DURHAM.

Gen. Car and Speakership—Salary for County Officers—Other Notes.

(Speial Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Nov. 18.—General Julian S. Carr, of this city who was elected to the Legislature on the Democratic ticket to represent Durham county, and who has been widely spoken of as a candidate for the speakership of the House, has given out the statement that he will not be in the race. He has had letters from prominent men all over the State offering him their support, and Durham people have been in hope that he would make the race. General Carr offers no reason for declining the honor but insists that his friends over the State do not consider him a candidate.

The county officers are getting ready for the changes that will be made in the various departments next month when they are put on the salary basis, and the auditor takes charge of his position. The bill putting the county officers on a salary instead of letting them get their pay from fees collected, was passed by the last Legislature. This new plan will result in the saving of a great deal of money to the county.

Taking his sermon from Matt. 22: 37-38, Bishop Kilgo preached one of his great sermons at Trinity Methodist Church last Sunday morning. He came out strongly against the modern Y. M. C. A., with its shower baths, gymnastics and pool tables, intimatng that these lead to everything but the true Christian religion. The Durham Sun came out the next day with an editorial in answer to the Bishop's sermon, and said that while he was condemning the association he did not offer any solution as to how the conditions might be made better, and how the Y. M. C. A. might in a more complete manner be made what it ought to be. There are many people in the city who heartily agree with the bishop, and who have always opposed having pool tables in the association rooms.

The next, and doubtless the last, footabll game to be played here will be the game between the Universities of North and South Carolina which will come off tomorow at the new athletic field. Carolina has only a few more games to play this season, and she is working hard to take every one of them if possible. The game here will no doubt be a hotly contested one throughout, and will draw a large crowd, for football enthusiasts are numbered by the hundreds in Durham.

The little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Belvin died a few days ago as the result of choking caused by the lodging of a piece of raw sweet potato in the wind-pipe. The death was a pathetic one in every way. The child was as bright and cheerful as could be a few minutes before it became choked. Mr. Belvin, who is deputy sheriff, was in the country on a bird hunt and knew nothing of the accident until he returned late in the afternoon.

Says the Charleston News and Courier: "We do not care a whole lot how old Ann is." Old Ann may be no better but she seems to be getting along all right She appears to be able to saw wood and say nothing.

Congressman William E. Sulzer, of New York, has announced that he is a candidate for Democratic Speaker of the House. He is a pretty good man, but the probability is that the Hon. Champ Clark has decided not to have any opposition for Speaker.

For a baby show at Florence, S. C., ladies who live out of town have been selected as the judges. The management of the baby show probably has been reading up on Solomon and acquired wisdom enough to adopt a plan that will keep the ladies of Florence on speaking terms.

"Honesty is the best policy" is a hoary old adage. It might be observed that the premium on that policy is a great deal easier to pay than the penalty which crookedness evokes from law and conscience. The time is coming when the malefactor of great wealth will have to sneak away from the withering scorn that is visited upon preditory individuals who steal sheep.

"Shall the Speaker appoint the House committe?" is the puestion being discussed by Democratic newspapers since a Democratic House of Representatives has been elected. As the committee s represent the House and not the Speaker, a Democratic House will be pretty apt to select the committees to which it delegates whatever power they have. The committees used to belong to Uncle Joe but they are no longer in the perquisite class. Prospective Speaker Champ Clark will have a Democratic and Insurgent House on his hands and he is not likely to invite the trouble that committee appointments gave Uncle Joe while he was in Congress.

"Shall we have women in politics?" inquires a contemporary. They get in whether we want them or not. A woman who hasn't got the right to vote was the cause of the defeat of Congressman Grant in the Tenth Congressional District in North Carolina. How many other candidates lost or won on account of women we know not but if the truth were known it would make an interesting chapter in the history of the Democratic landslide. We have an idea that the housewifes who got put out with the high cost of living had a good deal to say to their old men before they went to the polls on election day. Of course, women are in politics. They have the spellbinders beaten to a frazzle.

The Greensboro Record reached the 20th year of its publication on Thursday but its excellence and wisdom would indicate that the paper is as old as Editor J. M. Reece or Advertising Manager Harper Elam. We can't remember just how old they are but they have been hammering away on the Record long enough to make it a North Carolina institution. Editor Reece is a sage and philosopher and his editorial work is bright, entertaining and informing at all times. The paper has prospered because it has deserved it—because it has a distinguishing character that appeals to the confidence and good sense of everybody. That's the reason the Star likes it and considers it one of its most valued North Carolina exchanges.

GENERAL HAGOOD'S MEMOIRS.

"Memoirs of the War of Secession" is the title of an intensely interesting volume sent to the Star by "The State Company," Columbia, S. C., publishers. It is a book of about 500 pages and is from the original manuscript of Gen. Johnson Hagood, of the Confederate States Army. Though a distinguished South Carolinian, Gen. Hagood is well known wherever history of our Civil War is read. He was a chivalric gentleman and magnificent soldier, and was one of the South's recognized military geniuses whose names will ever illumine the pages of history.

It was such men as Gen. Hagood who made history and it is well that they had the scholarly attainments and disposition to leave behind them their own writings of the stirring events of a history which they helped to make. Gen. Hagood's "Memoirs of the War of Secession" is a valuable contribution to the history of our great Civil War and it has been many a day since our eye has fallen upon a book which so entertainingly records the events which must now live in history or tradition. Gen. Hagood's book indeed is a thrilling account of the War between the States from the day of the secession of South Carolina to the fall of Fort Fisher, below Wilmington.

It would be difficult, except in a long article, to express proper appreciation of Gen. Hagood's book, for it covers that gallant soldier's extensive observations while in the field in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, including many of the bloodiest battles of the war. However, that portion of his book which covers his service in and around Wilmington contributes a chapter of the deepest and most peculiar interest. About one-third of his memoirs refer to operations and exploits in and around Wilmington, and it is probably the completest history of the battles of Fort Fisher, Kinston, Bentonville, and the fighting on the lines below Wilmington, including operations at Fort Anderson, the engagement at Town Creek and the evacuation of Wilmington in 1865. These sketches of Gen. Hagood are accompanied by maps and diagrams of the scene of operations around Wilmington and in North Carolina, and especially the history of the events so close around Wilmington possesses immediate interest and conveys information of great value, both for those living and for posterity. There is a complete record of the fighting around Wilmington and many of the incidents embrace names of some of our own heroes or well known North Carolina soldiers.

We shall not attempt to rehearse any part of Gen. Hagood's writings concerning the war events in the immediate vicinity of Wilmington, for they can be read to more advantage as he has so faithfully recorded them. We have no doubt many North Carolinians who fought with and under Gen. Hagood would like to read his book, copies of which can be had by addressing "The State Company," Columbia, S. C. Gen. Hagood died in 1898, but he left behind the manuscript which composes the volume of which we write. It was edited by Gen. U. R. Brooks, a distinguished South Carolinian, who was a member of Hagood's brigade. Gen. Hagood was born in Barnwell county, S. C., February 21, 1829, and was descended from Revolutionary ancestors. Besides his distinguished career in war, he served his State in many capacities, including that of Comptroller General and Governor. He was a planter and banker and died one of South Carolina's most honored sons, a hero of the Civil War and one of the South's illustrious men.

When the world powers send their representatives to the peace conference they probably will be instructed to not give in to the representatives of any other power.

The Baltimore Sun insists that every girl should swim. Well, if they won't learn to swim there is nothing to prevent them from catching on to the drit of the current events.

A cablegram from the Panama Canal Zone says President Taft has found the Gatun Dam all rigat. The dam problem seems to have been solved by the canal engineers.

A West Virginia millionaire suspects his wife of attempting to kill him. Probably he has attached too much importance to the fact that she tries to control him by "looking daggers" at him.

It is stated that $10,000 have been bequeathed to a New York youth upon condition that he abstains from liquor for five years. Doubtless some relative was bent on making him earn the money.

Cures sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, chapped hands. Best for burns, scalds, fever sores, cuts, bruises and piles. 25c at Robert R Bellamy's.

One of Wilmington's leading citizens—a gentleman of advanced thought, progressive ideas and business achievement—yesterday handed the Star the communication published under the above caption on this page of today's paper. It will be observed that "Democrat" is a man of keen political conception and those who digest what he writes must admit that he has analyzed the political situation with a correctness that admits of no doubt.

Col. Roosevelt may have been one of the contributing causes for the Democratic victory in the State of New York but there are even shrewd political observers who doubt that and are constrained to believe that, but for the ex-President's personality, the Hon. John A. Dix would have carried New York by a bigger majority than that by which he was elected Governor. However, it is quite evident that, whatever influence the activity of Colonel Roosevelt in the campaign had upon the result, it was confined to New York and was not far-reaching beyond the scene of a factional fight which he led in his party with disastrous results for State Republicanism.

Col. Roosevelt was the whilom issue in his party but he was not the issue in the campaign as it affected States far removed from the sphere of New York State politics. "Democrat" has made that plain, and it is hardly necessary to add that there is no use to search for the cause of a Democratic triumph that was crowned by the overwhelming capture of Congress. The observant man cannot get away from the fact that the cause of the Democratic landslide was the burden imposed by an outrageous protective tariff adopted by a Republican Congress while the people were demanding the relief which had been promised by that party. The plain truth is, the Democratic triumph was a protest against Republican perfidy and was a blow struck at the party of privilege and favoritism by the masses who no longer were content to be willing victims of the monstrous policy of the National Republican party. The observations of "Democrat" are commended to the careful reading of every man interested in public affairs and the triumph of Democratic principles.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The express strike was a $6,420,000 advertisement for the parcels post.—New York World.

It's a careless generation that doesn't hand posterity some financial obligations along with great permanent improvements.—Washington Post.

This is awful. Here was Charlotte trying to fly by means of an imported airship last week and failed, while yesterday Raleigh did fly some by the same means, when just the other day Wilmington had a "fly" in a machine invented and made in Wilmington and the man who flew was a Wilmington man. What is more, the machine flew at the very first trial and sailed away finely. This is a fearful slam on Charlotte and the State. Wilmington is waking up. It would be just like her to put makers of other machines out of business. We do hope her machine will not turn to and get wrecked and kill the aviator, for Wilmington, like Greensboro, has no population to spare.—Greensboro Record.

The Record's record in one respect is being eclipsed. Years ago we used to employ young ladies as type-setters, but it was impossible to keep one. Seven got maried in less than this number of years. It made no difference about their looks—though most of them were good looking—they made a getaway and we gave up in despair. But the Southern Bell Telephone people just across the street from this office are eclipsing all records. Hardly does an operator get accustomed to the work before she is maried, all of which is giving trouble and much of it. However, a telephone company has one great advantage. Courting can be "did" over the phone, presumably, and this is why the girls "get off." But the operators, some of them, work at night and coming and going they have a "fellow." And so it is that they jump the game and quit. It's bad but it is human nature.—Greensboro Record.

It will not be long until an ordinary cabinet maker, or carpenter, given the engine, can turn out a flying machine of the type now in use. It will be as easy to make a flying machine as it would be to make a wheelbarrow. The Wright brothers furnished the pattern from which all the world is copying. Two Wilmington men who have been at work a long time on a flying machine, this week took a sail along the beach in their home-made flyer. The Star says of the machine: "It is neither a monoplane, a bi-plane, nor tri-plane, but it has several planes and is said to look more like a bird than all the other aerial inventions. It is equipped with a 40-horsepower motor, and the wonderful thing about the machine is that it rose and flew at its first trial." Another Wilmington man is building a flying machine on a different model, and hopes to be up in the air in a few days. By the way, The Chronicle extends those Wilmington aviators a cordial invitation to come to town. Charlotte will give them the glad hand and a good time.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, held their annual meeting in Richmond, this week. They found that their stock is on a six per cent. basis, which is mighty good, as railroad stock runs these days. According to President Emerson's report, although the rate per ton per mile and per passenger per mile remained practically the same, gross earnings were the largest in the history of the company. The Coast Line has been doing good, not only for itself, but is doing good for the country through which its roads run. As, for instance, the statement of Mr. Emerson that "the increasing number of home-seekers moving to points on the main lines made it necessary, in the furtherance of the industrial development of your teritory, to appoint an additional agricultural and immigration agent, thus creating two divsions of this department. One agent will devote his attention to the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, while the other will have jurisdiction over the States of Georgia, Florida and Alabama." Mr. Emerson says to the stockholders: "In the course of the year 2,966 settlers (heads of families) located on lines in various States and engaged in agricultural pursuits, and 168 factories, mills and other manufacturing industries were located at local points on your lines." The Coast Line is a great road, but Charlotte seems to have gone to sleep on the proposition to tap it.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Being Some Pertinent Observations on the Recent Elections and the Results Thereof by "Democrat."

Editor Star:—Now that the Democratic "landslide" of 1910 has passed, I think it opportune for the Democrats to analyze the situation, that they may be prepared to hold the various States that have swung into their columns.

Two of the leading New York papers, both controlled by the highest protected interests we have in this country, the "New York Times" and the "New York Sun," have led the press of this country in charging this defeat of the Republican party direct to Mr. Roosevelt. So much has been said in this direction that I fear the majority of the American people believe that to be a fact. If it is a fact, and Mr. Roosevelt was the cause, and the cause having been removed, why wouldn't it be natural for the country to swing back into the Republican columns in 1912?

I do not believe that Mr. Roosevelt was the cause. Let us see. Maine went Democratic some months before Mr. Roosevelt entered the field. He was certainly no issue in Maine. Six weeks ago, it was predicted that Governor-Elect Dix would carry New York by 200,000 majority. Mr. Roosevelt entered the campaign and reduced this to 60,000. Mr. Taft's own State of Ohio swung into the Democratic columns by 100,000 majority, notwithstanding the strenuous effort put forth by Mr. Taft's cabinet to save his own State, the argument being used by his cabinet officers that to lose Ohio would be construed as a repudiation of the President. Mr. Roosevelt did not enter the State of New Jersey, but that goes Democratic by 60,000, and Senator Lodge was unable to hold Massachusetts, and that too went Democratic. So it doesn't seem that Mr. Roosevelt was the cause, and when the "New York Times" and the "New York Sun" undertake to sit up over the remains of Mr. Roosevelt, they will find him the liveliest corpse they ever tackled.

Now as to the cause of this Democratic victory. Mr. Taft, two years ago, canvassed the country, visiting a majority of the States, and in no uncertain language admitted that the tariff was too high and promised a downward revision. The people, believing that a man running for the high office of President would make good his public promises, accepted those statements in good faith, and recorded their approval of the same by electing Mr. Taft. When Congress convened, the Aldrich-Cannon-Payne combination decided that those promises of Mr. Taft's were merely campaign promises—made only to be broken—hence the present tariff law. Mr. Taft failed to avail himself of his high privilege of demanding of Congress the fulfillment of his promises, to the extent, if necessary, of vetoing the bill. The interests in the country that control and make and unmake prices, to suit their pleasure and convenience, were so encouraged by this lack of forcefulness on the part of the President that they felt they were intrenched and could maintain, for many years to come, the iniquitous tariff under which we are living. Feeling this security, prices on all the necessities of life have gone up and remain unusually and unreasonably high. The people, therefore, exercised their rights and decided that the Republican party could not further be trusted to protect their interests. Hence the Democratic landslide of November 8th.

Now it should be quite clear to the average mind that it is to the interest of such high protection papers as the "Times" and the "Sun" to divert the attention of the people from the true cause and endeavor to center it up Mr. Roosevelt. They are far-sighted and able men who control those papers. They know that, if the American people can be made to believe that the tariff has no bearing on this question and that it was entirely a repudiation of one man, the country will go Republican in 1912, and this is their desire.

It seems to the writer that the Democratic press of this country should let the people understand the true cause that led to this victory. It is somewhat amusing to note that the interests that control the prices of the necessities of life are getting ready for a downward revision of the tariff. As we see, prices are already beginning to drop.

It will doubtless be the policy of Mr. Taft to have Congress convene in December, and at this late date endeavor to fulfill his promises and have the tariff revised between December and March, so as not to allow the Democrats the credit for doing it.

PLEA FOR SEWERAGE COMPANY

Attorney for Certain of Bondholders Tells Why City Should Purchase Existing System—Asks for Consideration.

Without endorsing the arguments presented therein, the Star, in the interest of fair play, gives space to the following from Mr. Iredell Meares, of the Wilmington bar, representing certain of the bondholders of the Wilmington Sewerage Co., in view of the conference of city officials upon the subject this afternoon:

Editor Star:—I represent certain of the bondholders of the Wilmington Sewerage Company. It is to be hoped litigation with the city may be avoided. Certainly, however, it cannot be expected that men, who have invested money in the plant, will tamely submit without an effort to protect their property. There are some facts the citizens should consider. The bondholders are no wise responsible for the controversies of years ago between the original promoters and the city, which seem to linger to the prejudice of the present owners of the plant. At the time this plant was laid, the people had voted against public sewerage and repeated efforts were made to induce private capital to build it. Finally, this was done. Now, to build a public sewer along the same streets, to use, if possible, the power of the city to compel the use of it in competition with the present system, without at its fair value, purchasing the present system, would be a rank injustice and little to the credit of the city. I do not think it can be legally or successfully done. Aside from this, however, and I think I can speak as a citizen, I believe there is a better, more practical and sensible solution of the present situation. It only requires the application of the spirit of fair play and common sense. In the first place, it is easy enough to resolve to go on and build a sewerage for $160,000, but, after all the preliminary expenses are paid, in way of salaries, maps and engineers and contingencies covered, to say nothing of the real construction of the work, how many streets will be sewered and connections made with residences? At whose cost will the connections with the main sewer be made? If at the expense of private persons, then, if the present users must change, it will cost an average of $25 to $50 to the individual. Nor is all the expense of digging up the streets an item of small consequence.

The present system is in practical use. There is no complaint that it is not doing the work. Mr. Hammond, who is one of the leading sanitary engineers of this country and recommended to the company by Mr. Herring, recently examined and reported the system to be adequate for present and future uses. Now, the company, recognizing the embarrassment to follow the construction of another system, has offered to sell to the city, at a price to be determined by arbitrators, its present system. It will take the notes of the city, I am prepared to say, to run over a period of years, such time as suits the city, say $5,000 a year, and if this were done, then the present money from the sale of bonds could be applied to extending the system of water and sewerage to such outlying parts of the city which are without either. In fact, if the city is to grow, this is necessary, and it is more important to bring about the undeveloped sections of the city than keep on patching along the same old streets. Real estate in Wilmington has always been abnormally and relatively high in certain sections and abnormally and relatively low in other sections, all because the outlying sections have been neglected in making street improvement and have been without water and sewerage. All enterprising cities improve the outlying streets and developments quickly follow. Again, it might be well for the city fathers to remember that, were they to build the new system, ignoring the present ones, they could not compel the present patrons of private sewers to join the public system; for, to this effect, in case from this city, the Supreme Court of the State has so declared. If they give sewerage free along the present line, without extending water and sewer to the outlying districts, so much the greater injustice to the owners of property and residents off the lines of sewer, who, without the use of it, will be compelled to pay taxes to support it in other parts of the city. As a citizen, apart from any professional relation to the matter, which it is fair to state, I trust that the conference this afternoon will approach the consideration of the matter in the attitude of the "square deal." Mistakes now may be serious and costly. Wise counsels may avoid trouble, controversy and discredit to the city.

OUT OF HEALTH.

is a very common expression.

Are you one of the unfortunates,—and what is the cause.

There are hundreds of people right in this vicinity who have poor blood, are run-down, all tired out, with no strength, vitality or ambition.

We want to ask all such people to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, which is made without oil and very palatable.

We claim it will make pure, rich red blood, and impart new life, energy and strength to every person who does not feel well. If it fails we will return your money—without question. Isn't this a fair and generous offer?

A case is reported from Leipsic, Ind.—Mrs. C. R. Catlin was troubled with indigestion—was weak—all run-down. She says Vinol cured her stomach trouble,—restored her strength,—and made her feel like a new woman. Anyone in her condition can get the same benefit from Vinol. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist. FOOTBALL THIS AFTERNOON

Teams Representing Donaldson Military Academy and Wilmington High School Meet for Gridiron Contest.

Football enthusiasts will have the opportunity this afternoon of witnessing what promises to be a most interesting and exciting amateur contest when teams representing the Donaldson Military Academy, of Fayetteville, and the Wilmington High School will meet for a contest at League Park. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the admission will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for school children. Already a large number of tickets have been sold and the indications are that the attendance will be the largest of any football game between amateur teams played in this city in some years.

Wilmington has a crack team, although much lighter in weight than the Donaldson team. These teams met for a contest at Fayetteville on November 4th, the result being 6 to 5. The local team has been materially strenghthened since then and they expect to capture the honors of the contest this afternoon. Fayetteville is coming down to win and will put up a stubborn contest.

The Donaldson team will arrive at 9:45 A. M., and will be in charge of Prof. McFall, one of the principals of the school. The boys will return this afternoon.

FOUR LOCAL CHANGES.

Methodist Church Conference This Month of Much Interest.

There is much local interest in the annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which will be held at Elizabeth City the latter part of this month, convening November 30th, and will continue through December 5th. There are to be more changes in the local churches than for any year in some time and there will be at least three new ministers sent to this city. Rev. K. D. Holmes is serving his fourth and last year as pastor of Fifth Street Church; Rev. E. R. Welch, pastor of Trinity Church, has been transferred to the Oklahoma conference, the condition of his health making the change necessary; Rev. Thomas A. Smoot, for three years pastor of Grace Church, has been transferred to the Virginia Conference, and given the pastorate of one of the Norfolk, Va., churches, and Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, presiding elder, is serving his fourth and last year in this district. It is probable that Rev. W. L. Rexford, who is serving his first year as pastor of Bladen Street church, will be returned to this charge again next year. Mr. Rexford was for four years pastor of Trinity Methodist Church and at the last annual conference was sent to Bladen Street Church. It is needless to say that the people generally regret that Messrs. Cuninggim, Smoot, Holmes and Welch will reside elsewhere after the close of the present conference year. They have all done good work in their respective fields and are very popular with the people.

The conference at Elizabeth City will very likely be largely attended by lay delegates and other Methodists of this city and section.

FAMILY HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Residence of Mr. J. M. Woolard Badly Damaged by Fire.

Aroused from their slumbers by dense smoke which poured into their sleeping apartments in great volumes, members of the family of Mr. J. M. Woolard, No. 715 North Fifth street, discovered their home on fire early yesterday morning just in time to escape with their lives. The fire had already made great headway and was burning with such rapidity and smoke was pouring in the sleeping rooms in such volumes as to leave little doubt but that within a very few minutes the occupants of the building would have been suffocated, had not the timely discovery of the blaze been made.

Members of the family had no time to think of wraps and clothing and rushed out on the street thinly clad and turned in an alarm from box 16, corner Fourth and Brunswick streets, bringing the fire department to the scene in a jiffy. The firemen worked for fully an hour before the blaze was extinguished. The damage is estimated at about $600, much of which was caused by water.

The origin of the fire is not definitely known. There are two theories and either one or the other is probably correct. One theory is that the fire started in a woodbox near the fire place and the other is that it had its origin from a spark from the chimney. There is no telling how long the fire had been burning, though slowly, when discovered.

It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. REV. DR. BYRON CLARK.

Marking the close of the Week of Prayer, a men's mass meeting will be held at the Bijou theatre Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., to which all the men of the city are most cordially invited to attend. The officers of the association count themselves exceedingly fortunate in having secured as the speaker for the occasion Rev. Dr. Byron Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Salisbury, N. C., who will have as his subject, "The Life That Tells."

Dr. Clark is one of the ablest ministers in Western North Carolina and is a deep thinker and pleasing speaker. He was born at Clarkton, Bladen county, and is a son of the late Mr. John H. Clark, and a brother of Mr. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, aspirant for Congress in the recent Democratic primaries. He graduated at Princeton University and Princeton Seminary. For 10 years he was pastor of Mount Washington Church, Baltimore, and for the past three years has been pastor of the Salisbury First Presbyterian Church, and during this time 200 new members have been added to the church roll making the present membership 600. He has been particularly successful in reaching men and generally there are more men than women in attendance upon services at his church. In addition to his regular pastoral duties, Dr. Clark holds services at the Spencer railroad shops every Thursday at noon, speaking to the men. The services are attended by about 400 men.

The men of the city should turn out en masse to hear the able divine tomorrow afternoon. The services promise to be of a most profitable and uplifting one. This is the first of a series of addresses to be delivered at the Y. M. C. A. men's meetings by out-of-town speakers during the Winter.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Z. T. Lumley, a White Man, Gets a Total of Nine Months on County Roads—Negro Given Three Months.

Z. T. Lumley, a well known white man, was the principal defendant in a rather interesting session of the Recorder's court yesterday morning, the cases against him coming up from Justice Harriss' coort where he was given preliminary hearing a few days ago on the charge of non-support of his wife and children and for assault with deadly weapon, to-wit: an axe, on his mother-in-law, Mrs. Vernon, who was the main witness against him.

Neither side was represented by counsel. After hearing the evidence the Recorder adjudged the defendant guilty in both cases and for non-support gave him six months on the county roads and for assault with deadly weapon he got three months.

Harry S. Styhles, a white man, was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy. He came here for some two months ago with a badly burned hand, which, it is said, has prevented him from doing any work. He was given 30 days at the county farm.

George Brown, colored, answered the charge of larceny by trick, the case coming over from Justice Harriss' court. It was charged that Brown secured the amount due another negro at work for the contractor building the annex to the High School building, and later, when asked for the amount, said that he had lost the money together with his own. The proceedings were then instituted against him. The Recorder held that the defendant was guilty and gave him three months on the county roads.

Three Western Union messenger boys were arraigned on the chage of riding bicycles at night without a light. Judgment was suspended.

COURT ADJOURNS FOR TERM

United States Circuit Court Wound Up Business Yesterday Afternoon—Stokes Gets Verdict Against Coast Line.

Having disposed of all the matters on the docket ready for trial, United States Court adjourned for the term at 6 o'clock last evening and Judge H. G. Connor left on the 7 o'clock train for his home at Wilson. Other court officers and attaches also departed for their homes. There were no matters for consideration yesterday afternoon, but as Judge Connor was not to leave until 7 o'clock court remained open until an hour before his departure.

The case of N. M. Stokes against the Atlantic Coast Line, an action for alleged damages in the sum of $15,000 for personal injuries received on the local yards of the company, the trial of which was begun Wednesday afternoon, went to the jury yesterday morning and shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon a verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff for $7,000, a little less than half the amount sued for. Judge Connor thought the verdict excessive and reduced the amount to $5,000. It is understood that the railroad will take an appeal. Thos. W. Davis, Esq., of local counsel for the Coast Line, and Former United States District Attorney Harry Skinner, of Greenville, appeared for the defendant company, while the plaintiff was represented by C. D. Weeks, Esq., and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan.

Upon motion of attorneys for the plaintiff, the case of Jefferson D. Farrior against C. O. Byerly, et al., was remanded to the State courts. J. T. Bland and A. D. Ward, Esqs., appeared for the plaintiff and Meares & Ruark represent the defendants.

In the case of the Knickerbocker Trust Co., against Wm. E. Worth, Thos. W. Davis, Esq., of counsel for the plaintiff, yesterday morning lodged a motion to require a bond of the defendant. Judge Connor said that he did not care to make any further orders in the case.

PAST MASTER IS HONORED

Mr. C. L. Meister Receives Jewel From St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Presentation by Secretary A. S. Holden.

An incident of a decidedly interesting and impressive nature occurred at the emergent communication last night of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., called for the purpose of conferring the Sublime degree of Master Mason, when Mr. A. S. Holden, secretary, on behalf of the lodge, in a feeling and eloquent short address presented to Past Master C. L. Meister, a beautiful gold Past Master's jewel. Although taken completely by surprise, not knowing that this event was a part of the evening's programme, the recipient of the much prized jewel made a most feeling and earnest speech in acceptance of the honor conferred upon him.

In presenting the jewel Mr. Holden, the energetic and popular secretary of the lodge, said:

"Brother Meister, I find from the records, that the sublime degree of Master Mason was conferred on you September 27th, 1904, since which time you have been twice elected its Master, the highest honor within the gift of the lodge. While in that office you have been charged with and found guilty of having a pleasant smile and a kind word for every one who entered your lodge. You have been found guilty of promoting harmony in your lodge, and you have been found guilty of doing all that you could to advance Masonry and of placing St. John's Lodge, No. 1, high in favor with the friends of Masonry in this city. The jury before whom you have been tried has given me the pleasure of executing their sentence—they have ordered me to place in your hand this gold Past Master's Jewel, and I ask you, my brother, to remember that your memory is enshrined in the heart of every member of this lodge. The things we most cherish, are not always those of the greatest intrinsic value, but rather those around which cluster memories dear to the heart. A lock of hair is sometimes more precious than threads of gold. The gift, however, is not without value in itself. Its gold is one of highest intrinsic value known to the commercial world, its emblematic significance appeals to the love and loyalty of every true Mason, but more precious than all these, is the fact that it is the gift of a body of men who have learned to love you for your true worth, who appreciate you for your faithfulness to duty and who honor you for the part that you have taken in this great organization that has encircled the globe with messages of truth and filled the earth with the fragrance of deeds of love.

"In the name of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, I present you this token of our love and esteem. Take it, my brother, and that you will wear it with pleasure to yourself and honor to this great fraternity of which you are a part, we have no doubt."

There was a large attendance of the members of the lodge and the occasion was one of great interest. A number of short addresses were made by other members, and during the evening the following tempting menu was served:

Chicken Salad, Celery,
Sandwiches
Beaten Biscuit Coffee
Cigars Cigarettes

Music was furnished during the evening and it was altogether one of the most pleasant meetings of the lodge held in some months.

THE DISTRICT NURSE.

Some Things That Have Been Accomplished by Worthy Charity.

In view of the series of performances now being given for the benefit of the District Nurse Fund, some review of the work done the past year is not inapropos, the facts and figures being given in the very handsome souvenir programme being used for the Spielgartenfest now in progress. The report is for the year ended October 1st, 1910. The nurse is Miss K. Olivia Smith and the report shows that 1,224 recorded visits were made during the year and 383 unrecorded visits, making a total of 1,607 visits, 95 new calls were made and 94 new patients were given attention. During this period 1,425 homes were visited. Nourishment as required in the form of soup, milk, prepared food and extracts were furnished. Articles were loaned the nine families. Two operations were performed and a physician was secured for one person. Fifteen deaths were recorded.

Home Grown Pecans.

Mr. Eustace Norfleet Forms Important Connection With Bank.

Of interest to his many personal friends and to the patrons and clients of the institution with which he goes, is the announcement that Mr. Eustace Norfleet, for many years connected with the Wilmington Stamp Works and latterly as secretary and treasurer and general manager, has resigned that position, effective already, and that he has taken a position as general assistant to the official staff of the Southern National Bank, working through every department and being also connected with the outside work of the bank. Mr. Norfleet will be a valuable acquisition to the Southern National forces and the change will no doubt be mutually advantageous. He is well known in the business community has many warm personal friends and a genius for detail that will make him especially valuable in his new position. He has already entered upon his duties, being succeeded in the active management of the Stamp Works by Mr. E. McD. Reynolds, an efficient young business man, who is not without experience in this line of commerical endeavor. Mr. Norfleet is held in the highest esteem by all in the circle of his acquaintance who will be pleased to know of his new and larger business connection with one of the foremost institutions in this section of the State.

ABRIDGE CAR SERVICE.

Schedule to be Shortened About an Hour Beginning Next Week.

It is to be regretted as a blow to city pride that the management of the Tidewater Power Co., effective Monday night, will shorten or abridge its city schedule so that cars will be taken off the lines from one half to an hour earlier. Wilmington's street car service both as to efficiency and hours has long been a source of pride to Wilmington people and while it is doubtful if the cars extremely late at night are revenue producers, it would seem that in a city of the importance of Wilmington, curtailment is unnecessary.

Beginning Monday night cars on the city line will come off one hour earlier. There will be extra cars, however, to meet the 11:40 and 11:59 P. M. trains. Beginning with Monday the last car leaves Front and Princess streets, one for Ninth and Orange, via Front street, and one for Ninth and Orange, via Princess street, at 12 o'clock. The last car for the belt line heretofore has left Front and Princess streets at 12:30 o'clock. The last car for Brooklyn, beginning Monday night, will leave at 11:20 P. M., instead of 12:10 as heretofore and will return from Brooklyn, reaching the Junction at 11:40 P. M.

Low Water in River.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "There was 2 1-2 feet of water in the Cape Fear this morning. The City of Fayetteville is expected up from Wilmington tomorrow evening. The Lyon, which left here Monday with a heavy cargo for Wilmington, stuck hard and fast on the bottom of the river at Cedar Creek, 12 miles below Fayetteville, and part of her cargo had to be transferred to a flat before she floated. She was able to proceed Wednesday."

COOPER SEVERELY INJURED.

Mr. Henry J. Skipper Had Thumbs Caught in Windlass Over River.

While engaged about the turpentine distillery of the Geo. L. Morton Co., across the river, yesterday about noon, Mr. Henry J. Skipper, employed by the company for the past thirty years or more as a cooper, had the misfortune to have his thumbs caught in a rope windlass used in drawing barrels upon the distillery platform, severely lacerating them and to such an extent that he had to be brought across the river for medical attention. Particulars of the accident could not be learned last night, but it seems that a mule was hitched to the windlass, the pull being too heavy for man power, and that in an unguarded moment, Mr. Skipper allowed his thumbs to be caught on the windlass as the animal moved forward. He was brought across the river by another employe on the yards and was met by Capt. Jesse Wilder, who saw that he got medical attention and sent him to his home in the city. Friends of Mr. Skipper hope that he will early recover from the results of his injury.

MR. KERSHAW DEAD.

Prominent South Carolinian Died Suddenly—Brother-in-Law Here.

Mr. Benj. Bell, of this city, yesterday received a telegram conveying to him the distressing news of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Z. T. Kershaw, a prominent citizen and mayor of Timmonsville, S. C., which occurred yesterday morning. Mr. Bell leaves on the early morning train today for Timmonsville to attend the funeral. He has the sympathy of a host of friends in Wilmington in his bereavement.

Mr. Kershaw belonged to a very distinguished family of that name in South Carolina. He had represented his county for two terms in the South Carolina General Assembly and for one term was mayor of the city of Florence. He never married, but leaves a large family of relatives and friends in the State, who are distressed at the death. The funeral will be held at Timmonsville, S. C. today.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Theatrical

Wilmington theatre-goers, who are fond of the best and who never fail to patronize such, should realize in time that the attraction offered by the Academy for Monday night will be one of the best in the history of things theatrical in this city. It will be a big Henry W. Savage production of "Madame X.", the play that has been proclaimed the sensation of the world. Judging by the big run had by the attraction and the unanimous opinion of the press the attraction is great in every meaning of the word.

A number of papers have editorialy commented on the play. So Wilmington theatre-goers must not miss this offering and seats for which will go on sale at Plummer's this morning.

To the already long list of flattering press notices the Asaeville Citizen yesterday morning added this tribute:

"More than meeting all the claims that had been made for it, the great French drama "Madame X" drew an unusually large audience to the Auditorium last night. Few plays in this city have provoked such intense interest or have been followed with closer attenuon. Unlike many of the French dramas, 'Madame X" treats a scandal in high life without leaving a bad taste in the mouth or a questionable odor in the nostrils. So ably presented is the theme that even the most exacting critic can find in the play a wholesome sermon.

"The running of last night's presentation was not marred by the presence of incompetent actors. The company was a strong one throughout. most of its members being fully up to the standard required by so strong a play.

"The third scene, the trial and court room, was perhaps the most realistic yet seen on the local stage. Here as in other situations, Miss Mabel Montgomery, in the role of Jacqueline rose to unusual heights and strengthened the opinion of many critics that she is an exceedingly clever emotional actress. The work of Mr. Frederick Burt as Louis Floriot was also something long to be remembered in the line of good dramatic effort Previous to this scene he is not called upon to give any hint of the unusual dramatic power which marked his plea to the jury for the life of the unfortunate woman in the dock who was his mother, althougth he did not know it. The outburst of applause which greeted Mr. Burt's effort at this point threatened to break his progress toward the climax, but he resumed his argument with an ease which marked the finished actor, Others deserving of special mention are Mr. George Timmons as "Merivel." Both contributed largely to the success of the evening.

"Madame X" was in every sense a theatrical treat and the enthusiastic reception accorded it here will doubtless strengthen the impression that Asheville will always patronize good shows."

Thanksgiving at the Academy.

The Academy management has for Thanksgiving Day. A particularly bright attraction will be offered then in John W. Vogel's Minatrels. This is the first time south of this big company and its tour has been a great triumph so far. There will be two performences Thanksgiving Day, matinee and night, and the holiday offering will, no doubt draw out large audiences. At the matinee the prices will go only to 75 cents, while at night they will reach $1.

The Bijou Today.

At this popular motion picture theatre today will be shown two fine pictures as the feature of the bill, entitled "The Stolen Father," telling a simple story in a most interesting and original manner, and "The Two Sisters," a realistic drama in which a girl's thrilling experience is clearly, cleanly and truthfully depicted.

The Crystal Palace.

With four performances today the present splendid bill at the Crystal Palace will come to a close and next week another equally as good will be put on. The bill this week has pleased immensely the large crowds in attendance.

Joyland.

A special programme will be offered at Joyland for the big Saturday crowds today, the bill including "The Mascot of Company D," and the "Heart of God," both of which should prove very interesting. The programme changes daily.

Conference this Afternoon.

Members of the Board of Aldermen, Board of Audit and Finance and Water and Sewerage Comission will meet in the Mayor's office at the City Hall this afternoon at 5 o'clock for a conference on the sewerage question, and a long-suffering public hopes that at this meeting it will be finally determined whether or not the city will purchase the existing sewerage plant or any portion thereof, so that there will not be any further delay in carrying foward the work of installing a modern and up-to-date municipal system.

WAS STUPENDOUS SUCCESS

"Spielgartenfest," and "Two Vagabonds" Presented at Academy of Music, Matinee and Night—Delighted Audiences.

(Reported for The Star.)

"Wasn't it fine last night? Never enjoyed a performance more," is the greeting you will hear on every side.

When the possessor of a ticket walked to the opera house yesterday, it was probably with the secret feeling that they expected Instructor Foote would repeat the success of his last years' performance—which he has done—but particularly because they felt that when a noble band of self-sacrificing women give the patient hard work—hour after hour toil—toward a charity that must appeal to anyone who "loves his fellowman," which they have given in the weeks they have worked, organizing and aiding in the training of the hundreds who take part in the two performances of yesterday and today, and are the means of sending an efficient trained "District Nurse" to one thousand, four hundred and twenty-five homes, as was done this past year, there to minister to the sick, to educate, comfort and in case after case save the life of the sick and dyng child or parent, then for such noble work and for such a cause every seat should be filled at the matinee and at the night performance, and each will have a warm glow around their kindly heart for doing their share in aiding such a good cause.

Both of the performances were delightful, the matinee was a children's performance, and who doesn't love children? Who is so old that their brght, happy, eager faces, doesn't make his heart beat faster and bring a smile of happiness at their graceful unconsciousness?

The "Two Vagabonds" were at the matinee, and no more charming couple could be found than captivating little Miss Elizabeth Powell and Master Charles Bidgood. The dear little vagabonds ran the risk of their lives" by attending the picnic of the Cadets and the school girls, disguised as peddlers. Here they were surrounded by a merry band until three "Of the Finest" big, bold policemen, with terrible clubs, chased them away. Finally they were caught, and have to throw off their disguises, to save themselves from a 'Dungeon Deep" or some other Summer resort, they burst forth into song and the music is so entrancing that they escape until this afternoon —when you can come and see what happens.

The Military Men are headed by Captain Heiskell Gouverneur with able Lieutenant Charlie Schnibben, and Drummer Boy Charlie Grainger close beside, and the terrible policemen are William Fenley, Rob DeRosset and Maurice Moore.

The jolly band enjoy themselves immensely and the audience is right with them, for no one could fail to be delighted when they heard the "Hoo Hoo Aren't You you Coming Out Tonight" of dainty Miss Rosalie Burbank, and "Tittle Tattle Tale" of Miss Elizabeth Powell. Both of these charming Misses are well above the average and are truly finished in their parts.

Variety is attained by good dancing, and a new star is added by Miss Helena Weill, both in her Scarf Dance and her Yama, Yama, Man.

The Bessie McKoy Girls in their Yama Dance—Misses Louise Grant, Frankie Berry, Laura Jacobs, Lossie Cotchett, Vera Furlong, Genevieve Dushan, Anna Futch, Cleone Pigford —are each delightful.

Then Miss Gladys Twining gave a skipping rope dance, both new and novel, showing much grace and skill.

The Skirt Dance girls were beautifully costumed and made a big hit. They were Misses Anna Fennell, Augusta Boykin, Marie Fennell, Bessie Harriss, Rosa Orrell, Sophie Beery, while the Misses Margaret Greer, Grace Brown, Pearl Hayes, Dorathea Queich, Mamie Gerdes, Effie McInniss, Hortense Strickland, Eleanor Maude Conway, Meriel Everitt, Lillian Styne, Lucile Page, Marie Nixon, Gaynelle Nixon, Maude Willson, Dorothy Cheek, Goldie Smith, Margaret Creteau, Edna Vaughan, Lillian Allen were encored again and again.

Last, but by no means least was the dancing of our always graceful little Miss Sadie Booker. This charming little lady wore a costume of exceptional elegance, and her appearance as usual received great applause.

The merry bunch of School Girls, were headed by Miss Veritas Saunders and Miss Ray Silverman and the others were Ella May MacCartney, Rosalie Burbank, Mattie Beach, Cornelia Hawkins, Katherine Bruff, Elizabeth Tate, Marie Keels, Mary Garvey, Minnie Bennett, Gladys Armstrong, Virginia Fountain, Lucile Darden, Katie Orr, Annie Capel, Rosa Badon, Carrie McInnis, Johanna Rehder, Margaret Beery, Effie McInnis, Goldie Smith, Dorothea Queich, Mabel Meier, Gaynell Nixon, Mary Green, Marie Nixon, Hortense Strickland, Pearl Hayes, Meriel Everett, Maud Conway, Maud Willson, Eleanor Harriss, Margaret Greer, Margaret White, Lillian Allen, Grace Brown, Lillian Styne, Dorothy Cheek, Lucile Page, Madgelene Johnson, Bessie Morris, Mamie Gerdes.

While the Cadet Corps consists of Cofield King, Walter Hanna, Edward Johnson, Louis MacMillan, Edwin Johnson, Carl Mahler, William Mahler, Simon Saunders, Carey Murrell, Marion Leftwich, Robert Morrison, Murray Grant, Charlie Nixon, Franklin Floyd, Macklyn Floyd, Thomas Stone.

To the inspiring tune of a rag-time jollity the curtain rose at eight thirty on the Spiel-Garten-Fest.

Here a garden party were seated around, while minstrel men with black face and elaborate costume were on the ends.

Space forbids the mention of the hits, sallies, repartee and wit of personal and local nature—in fact, the large audience was at times in roars of laughter and at others thrilled by the beautiful singing. The personnel of the Garden Party who did stunts is as follows:

Waiters, F. W. Gerken; H. P. West, S. A. Mathews, G. T. Hewlett; Sky High, head waiter, H. L. O'Neill; Teddy Rose Felt, from Africa, R. H. Grant, Jr.; Dick Manzfield, a Legit, A. PART II.

Singing and Dancing Duo—(a) "When Will My Dreams Come True" (b) "Kiss, Kiss, Kiss,"—Miss Pauline Osborne and Mr. Harry Foote.

Scarf Dance—Miss Helena Weill.

Of these the singing of Mrs. Edwards, Mr. Frank Banks, Mrs. J. K. Taylor and Miss Gertrude Sneed and Mr. F. W. Gerken deserve special mention, and were repeatedly encored by the enthusiastic audience.

Following the musical part was the charming duet of petite Miss Pauline Osborne with Mr. Foote.

Then came the double sextette in the Floradoralike dance and song sketch, "Let Us Swear by the Pale Moonlight," rendered by the following beautiful women and brave men, Misses Bessie Gore, Olive Quince, Jeannette Frank, Mamie Nathan, Edith Pritchard, Lauriston Hardin. Messrs. Hill, Norwood Huske, Denny, Grant, Branch, Turner.

Miss Helena Weill, Miss Sadie Booker, with little Misses Elizabeth Powell, Rosalie Burbank and Gladys Twining and the "Yama Yama" girls, who made such distinct hits in the afternoon performance, were again called to contribute to the occasion and a second time added laurels to their wreath of fame.

Then "our own" Al Fields held down the boards and the "Few Moments with Mr. Hewlett," with his local side splitters and comic songs was delightful. "Der Faderland for Mine," led by the graceful and charming Miss Lauriston Hardin, assisted by Misses Christine Stevenson, Annie Worth, Carolina Holmes, Frances Bailey, Mrs. McCorkle, Sue Anderson, Lilly Taylor, Janet O'Neill, which, as its name implies, was a German, jolly good Dutch jingle.

Then followed the "Ill Treated Trovatore" with the following cast:

Manrico, Imprisoned Lover, Joe Fenley; Leonora, his Sweetheart, Mrs. Joseph Yates; Count Von Offsky, the Duelist, W. C. Denny; Ban Gobinsky, the Sentry, H. P. West; Never Toolatesky, the Servant, B. S. Mills.

After which a much delighted audience went home to tell their friends what an enjoyable evening they had spent and to add, "Be sure and don't miss it this afternoon and tonight."

Basketball Contest Last Night.

There was a large crowd at the Boys' Brigade last night to witness the third of the series of basketball games between teams of the organization contesting for the distinction of having their names inscribed on a handsome cup given by Mr. George Honnet. The Stags won from the Lions by the score of 18 to 14 and the Seminoles defeated the Kangaroos 10 to 9. The games were the best that have been played at the armory this season and the crowd was the largest. Games will be played next Friday night.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Wilmington women know the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail to make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidney and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Wilmington woman's words:

Mrs. Laura E. Hand, 809 Ann St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they did me a world of good. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had such severe pains across my loins that I was prevented from sleeping well. The kidney secretions also caused me annoyance. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and they did me more good than any other remedy I had ever taken. The backache ceased, my kidneys became normal and I could go to bed and obtain a full night's rest."

COTTON MARKET VERY STEADY

Closed Net Unchanged to Six Points Higher—Prices Broke During Early Trading—Market Somewhat Irregular.

New York, Nov. 18.—The cotton market continued quiet today, but while somewhat irregular, showed a steadier tone in the main with the close very steady net unchanged to six points higher.

The market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of four points on a little covering, better cables than expected, and reports that continental trade interests had been good buyers in Liverpool, but there was no aggressive support and prices soon weakened under local bear pressure and selling orders attributed to Memphis and trade sources.

Shortly after the opening prices broke to a net loss of 5 to 7 points with March selling at 14.33 or within one point of the low level reached yesterday. There was a good demand around these figures, however, partly from leading Southern bulls with some buying from Wall street bulls on Southern advices indicating a large percentage of the crop ginned to November 14th, and the market rallied in consequence with prices at one time showing a net gain of from 5 to 9 points.

There was covering by early sellers on the rally, but there was no improvement in the volume of outside demand, and subsequent fluctuations were more or less irregular, with the close a little off from the top under scattering liquidation. It was rumored that the final figures of the National Ginners' Association indicated 8,894,000 bales ginned to November 14th, or a little less than predicted earlier in the week. Southern spot markets as officially reported early were 1-8c lower to 1-16c higher. Reports as to the spot situation in the interior were more or less conflicting some advices reporting a good demand from exporters while others claimed that there was little business with the mills bidding just under the views of holders. Much of the day's business seemed to be in the way of evening up for over the week end and the census report at the opening on Monday morning.

Receipts at the ports today 80,936 bales against 89,590 last week and 57,594 last year; for the week 400,000 against 376,608 last week and 277,066 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 16,581 bales against 3,402 last year, and at Houston 14,134 bales against 5,390 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 14.50; middling gulf 14.75; sales 1,100 bales. Futures opened steady and closed very steady.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Apparently a Trading Affair for Everybody on Market—Bears Still Claim Crop of 13,000,000 Bales—Ginning.

New York, Nov. 18.—It has apparently been a purely trading affair for everybody, big operators not excepted, and prices of cotton have drifted downward under the pressure of increased receipts and persistent liquidation. Naturally the usual selling for a decline in a falling market has not been without its effect.

Bears stick to it that the crop is 13,000,000 bales, if not more; that bulls are overestimating the consumption; that the quietness of the cotton goods trade is a significant factor, and that big ginning figures in the report to be issued next Monday by the Census Bureau will have to be taken as corroborative of high crop estimates. Speculation has dwindled to a low ebb owing to the frequent and sharp fluctuations which have puzzled and exasperated the shrewdest and most expressed operators in the market. A former and well known twenty cent bull has come out with a bearish manifesto on the ground that the crop is larger than he had supposed it to be. On the other hand, there are still bulls who adhere to the conviction that the crop is about 11,500,000 to 11,800,000 bales and who insist that increased receipts and even liberal ginning figures are by no means to be construed as pointing to a big crop. They argue that ginning is more rapid than in former years and that the South having already sold something like $500,000,000 worth of cotton this season, is in a position to hold back the rest of the crop if it sees fit to do so. They insist that if cotton goods are less active than recently, they are nevertheless firmly held, and that the Manchester market is so active and strong as to suggest that it is on the eve of a big and permanent revival of trade.

The recent freezing weather at the South is believed by bulls to have done more damage than their opponents are willing to admit and some of the freezes have been followed by rains. Spinners have been buying futures here and on the continent, especially Germany, has been buying in Liverpool. It is said that 85 to 90 per cent. of the crop in Texas has been picked and ginned. It is claimed that the ginning has been so rapid that after the report to be issued on the 31st instant, the ginning figures are likely to fall off sharply.

Some Southern points have reported an excellent spot demand with holders refusing to recognize the decline in future. Some dealers who sold New England mills for November shipment have been asking for an extension of time till December. Yet the upshot of the trading has been a decline owing to the increase of receipts and a lack of speculative support in the present persistent liquidation.

GOOD FOREIGN REPORTS.

Improvement in Cotton at Liverpool —General Conditions.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 18.—An improvement in Liverpool was supposed to have been caused by American buying, as it was thought that some of the large traders bought back (before the ginners' report) some of the cotton which they had sold on the last advance.

A quiet market, though very steady, was thought to reflect this idea, as the spot houses appeared as seller of hedges on all firm periods. The large insight and the reported large ginners' estimate from the National ginners were without effect upon prices as they are believed to have had their influence on the recent decline. Good reports come from Manchester.

FALL OFF IN STOCK DEALINGS

Shrinkage in Steel, Union Pacific and Reading Feature of Market Yesterday—Operations Arouse Suspicion.

New York, Nov. 18.—There was a heavy shrinkage today in the proportion of the dealings in United States Steel and Union Pacific to the aggregate volume of the market. These stocks, together with Reading furnished the medium for concentrated speculative operations, which had become so conspicuous as to induce criticism and arouse suspicion. The discussion had become insistent as to come under official investigation today by the initiative of the brokers concerned.

The fact of this inquiry was supposed to explain the subsidence of the particular activities under review. The absence of any official censure had the effect of removing some of the uneasiness which had begun to be felt on account of the length to which it was feared the movement was running. The tone of the speculation benefitted in a passive way from this outcome and from the corresponding cessation of professional operations hostile to the market position thus involved. There was a considerable demand from a short interest left uncovered as a result of yesterday's bear operations. The supply of stocks proved scanty and the demand light as it was, proved effective in advancing prices. The speculative outbreak in the Rock Island stocks, joined to the Reading movement, turned the whole market strong at the close. The growing ease of the money market was an effective factor in favor of the advance in prices. The average of the day's call loan rates fell below 3 per cent. for the first time since the November settlements began to affect the market. The reports from the banks today on the week's currency movement disclosed that receipts have outrun shipments on the interior movement to the extent probably of over $3,000,000, while the withdrawals on sub-treasury operations amounted to only $1,040,000.

Some sentimental influence was ascribed to the judicial decision in favor of the Standard Oil Company by the United States court at Jackson, Tenn. Reported buying of copper in the domestic market explained the strength of the copper industrials.

The shifting of the principal speculative activity to Reading and the revival in the Rock Island issues was supposed to point to a shift in the personality of the leadership. Renewed rumor of a coming increase in the Lehigh Valley dividend figures in this movement. Reading's proportion of the total dealings rose to nearly one-third, and United States Steel fell back to only about one-sixth of the whole market.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales par value $2,350,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 386,800 shares.

GIBSON MEMORIAL CHURCH.

Cornerstone of Handsome Edifice Laid at Spring Hope, N. C.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Spring Hope, Nov. 18.—The cornerstone of the Gibson Memorial Methodist church of this place was put in place yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The service was in charge of Rev. W. F. Craven, pastor of the church. Rev. W. E. Stanfield, of Battey, a former pastor, and Rev. D. F. Putnam, pastor of the Spring Hope Baptist church took part in the service. There were appropriate songs and the Spring Hope band rendered several selections. The address of the occasion was made by Rev. L. P. Howard, pastor of the First Methodist church of Rocky Mount. In the cornerstone were deposited by Mr. W. H. Taylor, one of the leading stewards of the church, copies of the church papers, copies of the State papers and the local paper, a copy of the Bible, a roll of the church, and of the Ladies' Aid Society. A protograph of the wife and children of Rev. J. W. Gibson for whom the church was named, was also placed in the cornerstone.

The Gibson memorial church when completed will be an ornament to the town of Spring Hope. It will cost something like $20,000, and will be a handsome house of worship. The name is most appropriate. The first pastor of a Methodist church at Spring Hope was the late Rev. J. W. Gibson, a brother of Mr. W. F. Gibson, of Gibson, N. C. He joined the N. C. conference in 1893, the same year the present pastor, Rev. W. F. Craven, did. The Gibson family will place a memorial window in the church. The people remember with the greatest love and esteem Mr. Gibson and his family, and it is with pleasure they have decided to name the church in his honor.

ADMITS KILLING FATHER.

Horrible Deed of Indiana Man—Threw Body in Well.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 18.—"I thought he was dead. I loaded the body into the buggy and started for the old well. I had the body proped up on the seat. On the way father revived a little and threw his arms around my neck. Then I beat him over the head again until he was quiet. Just as I was about to throw the body into the well he groaned and gave a long sigh."

This, according to the police, is part of the signed confession of Benjamin Smith, 22 years old, a farmer now in the Muncie jail. It was the climax of a remarkable recital of murder.

Last night Smith, his hands smeared with blood, went to the home of Oscar Shaw and told a story of having been attacked by highwaymen.

Smith's father was mysteriously missing and suspicions were aroused which led to his arrest. Under examination, he finally said that he would show the police where his father's body could be found.

He led the way to an abandoned well and pointing, said: "There he is."

From the old well, the police took the body of Charles Smith, the father.

The police learned that the father and son had quarreled because the father wanted young Smith to pay board.

MAJOR ELLIOTT TO RETIRE.

Commandant of Marine Corps Leaves Service November 30th.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Major General George Frank Elliott, commandant of the United States marine corps, will be retired November 30th, under orders issued today.

General Elliott retires by reason of the statutory age limit provision. Col. William P. Biddle, now attached to the marine headquarters in Washington, is the ranking officer of the eight colonels of the corps. It could not be learned at the department, however, whether or not he will succeed General Elliott.

On November 30th General Elliott will terminate an active career in the marine corps of more than 40 years. Born in Alabama, but appointed from New York, he entered the service October 12, 1870. He has seen 14 years sea service and rose gradually to the position of commandant October 3, 1903. He was appointed a major general on May 13, 1908.

New York, Nov. 17.—Miss Bertha May King retained her title of woman pool champion of the world tonight by defeating Miss Martha Clearwater 93 to 66 in the final block of their 400 point match. The grand totals were: Mrs. King 400; Miss Clearwater 307.

TEDDY AT WASHINGTON AGAIN

character will be hurt thereby."

In the lecture at Convention Hall tonight, he confined himself entirely to a discussion of the incidents of the trip and told of the habits of the natives, the encounters with wild beasts and the remarkable collection of specimens, which, he declared, he was glad the expedition was able to obtain. The colonel was introduced by Henry Gannett, president of the National Geographic Society, who read a resolution of appreciation adopted by the society for Mr. Roosevelt's services to geographic science.

The colonel referring to the African expedition, praised the work of his companions and mentioned among the achievements of the trip the taking of the best photos of a herd of wild elephants ever taken and the only photographs of live white rhinoceroses as well as some 14,000 specimens of much value.

"There were no hardships," he continued, "except a mild amount of danger from shooting wild beasts and from disease. Fortunately no white men of the party were lost."

The speaker digressed to mention that he was just about on the equatorial line when news reached him of the alleged discovery of the North Pole by Dr. Cook. He said he did not believe it at the time. When he received news a few days later of the achievement of Commander Peary, he declared he was confident that the Pole had been reached and added that he was glad of the stand which the National Geographic Society had taken in defending Peary.

Indirect allusion was made by the colonel to his recent strictures on the Supreme Court, when he related an incident which, he said, only Mark Twain could have done justice to.

"Any of us who have had dealings with government officers know the type of bureaucrat that will keep to the rules even if the heavens fall," he continued.

"Captain Smith, the head of the irrigation service, in a North African town, had been trying to raise vegetables and flowers. One night a zebra came and his gardner killed the animal whereas the district judge promptly fined the gardner for killing game without a license."

The audience laughed as the colonel added: "I don't think the most sesitive soul could object to calling that judge 'fossilized.'"

After the lecture Colonel Roosevelt held an impromptu reception, many officials pressing forward to greet him. Mr. Rosevelt will spend tomorrow here and leave for Oyster Bay Sunday.

CAPPS ON SPECIAL DUTY.

Navy Department Sends Him to Philippines on Important Mission.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Chief Constructor Washington L. Capps is going to the Philippines on a mission of great importance to the navy under cover of an order detaching him from duty as the senior member of the Boards on Hull Changes of vessels building on the Atlantic Coast, and directing him to proceed abroad on special temporary duty. The chief constructor is to make a careful examination of the navy yard at Cavite in Manila harbor, and the naval station at Olongapo on Subig Bay.

Part of the general scheme of naval development in the pace is to create an American Gibraltar at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, which involves the abandonment of the idea of establishing a powerful naval base in the Philippines and converting the station at Olongapo into a mere repair depot. There is not water enough at Cavite to enable heavy warsnips to approach the navy yard there and it is doubtful if Olongapo could be rendered impregnable.

Stil in view of the necessity of making more or less repairs to the American fleed which must be maintained in the Orient, some suitable plant must be maintained at a point nearer to Asia than Hawaii, hence the necessity for placing the naval station at Olongapo in condition. The report of Constructor Capps will enable the Navy Department to fix the amount of the estimate of appropriation which must be submitted to Congress at the approaching session.

FATAL BATTLE OVER GIRL.

Two Men Were Killed in Stubborn Fight—Italian a Victim.

Mount Kisco, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Two men were killed at a road house near here tonight in a battle over a girl. One is an unidentified Italian and the other James McCann, a relative of the proprietor of the road house. Beyond the fact of the battle the police have as yet few facts.

They understand that a girl named Brower disappeared from her home a few days ago and that her brother sought her at the road house. He could get no satisfaction and left with a threat that there would be trouble when he returned. Tonight there was a raid on the house. An attacking party tried to force an entry and were repulsed.

They withdrew but took up a position a short distance down the road and opened fire. The garrison of the road house answered in kind and one of each side fell. The bullet brought down McCann as he passed through the door. The Italian was in the attacking party.

WWI Igu. ET

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 18.—The eighty seventh annual session of the Baptist Central Association of Virginia met here tonight in the First Baptist church and will continue several days. The meeting was called to order by Hon. T. H. Elliott, of Richmond, the present moderator. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, of Petersburg. About 750 are in attendance.

New York, Nov. 18.—George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, took on Emile Pons, of France, tonight, instead of Pilakoff, the Finish wrestler he was scheduled to meet. They wrestled catch as catch can and Hackenschmidt won the fall in 11 minutes and 40 seconds. Pilakoff said he had a sprained ankle and refused to go on.

THE WESTERN CONFERENCE

Addresses by President Few and of Others at Winston-Salem Yesterday.—Number of Changes Rumored.—Other Deta.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov 18.—Addresses by President Few, of Trinity College; Mrs. Lucy Robertson, president of the Greensboro Female College, and Mrs. T. F. Marr, president of the Woman's Home Mission Society, were made today at the business sessions of the Western North Carolina Conference, now being held here.

The regular morning session was preceded by an impressive sermon by Bishop E. R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, Mo., who is presiding.

Gratifying reports were submitted of the work accomplished during the past year, by the presiding elders and pastors. The administration of a class of nine undergraduate traveling preachers into full connection, was of interest.

This afternoon the conference attended a recital at Salem Female College.

At the session of the conference today the conference received a class of nine into full connection. Bishop Hendrix delivered an able address at this time. Reports of presiding elders and preachers in the Asheville and Charlotte districts were made and their characters passed. The Charlotte district paid $7,800 to foreign missions and $80,000 to all causes. Several visitors addressed the conference. The anniversary of the Children's Home was celebrated this evening. Supt. H. A. Hayes delivered an excellent address.

Rumor has it that S. B. Turrentine is elected secretary of the board of missions with salary and that Rev. J. E. Thompson is changed from High Point to presiding elder of the same district. J. E. Abernathy or J. H. Barnhardt will go to High Point.

Metnodists throughout North Carolina will be interested in the recommendation of the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, which was made to the conference at its session today. This recommendation favors the appointment of a commission from this conference to confer with a like commission from the North Carolina conference regarding the consolidation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the Raleigh Cnristian Advocate. Should such a consolidation be effected, the two conferences would unite in the support of one conference organ, instead of each conference publishing an organ, as is the case at present. Some years ago such a consolidation of conference organs was effected by the two conferences, but the plan was not satisfactory, and after having tried it for several years, the plan was abonsned, and since that time the two organs have been published. It is a fact that is remembered well by Metnodists in every section of the State now much discussion, debate, and conferring of commissions was required in both conferences, from session to session, for several years before the paper question," as it wa faminarly known was settled. If this conference approves the recommendation for consolidation, it is probable that a good deal more discussion and debate will follow before a second consolidation is effected. The action of the conference with regard to the recommendation is anticipated with interest.

This question will come up also, in all probability at Elizabeth City two weeks from now, during the session of the North Carolina Conference.

The interest of the conference in the appointments of the preachers for next year is growing from day to day. This interest is increased by the fact that several preachers have been received by transfer at this session, and others are expected to be announced before the close of the conference. It is known that the transfer system is more active in the church this year than usual, and it is expected that it will affect this conference, to some extent at least.

It is said now that Rev. Plato Durham has decided not to transfer out of the State of North Carolina, but transfer to the North Carolina conference, to become pastor of Grace church, Wilmington if the change is desirable.

AMERICAN SAILORS FOUGHT.

A Race Riot at Cherbourg—Developed Into Ugly Fight.

Cherbourg, Nov. 18.—A dispute between white and colored blue jackets of the American squadron under Admiral Vreeland tonight developed into an ugly fight in which revolvers and knives were used. The gendarmes arrested a sailor from the Kansas, who is charged with having stabbed a man from the Louisiana in the abdomen. One negro was sent to a hospital in a serious condition from several stab wounds in his back, while another negro was wounded on the head. The authorities are arranging for a stronger police patrol to prevent further disturbance.

Cherbourg, Nov. 18.—The sailor from the Louisiana who was wounded in the abdomen died later today in a hospital.
